United Fund lags, extended 30 days

Hancock County's United Fund drive has been concreted through the month of November Vith only $3,290.66 raiced to far toward a budget of $17,500, Allen Serret, general compoly chairman, and Wedneeday.

While whenever have been considered their convocated efforts, very little money or platifes come in during the week. A good many businesses are collicing their employes and apparently volting for 100 per cent participation before turning in their figures, Serret surmiced. Arceneous Super Service voe the lone business firm licaed in the latest rocter of contributors. Meanwhile, Joseph Marochine, Bay St. Louis division chairman, urged canvacers to continue depositing their collections to the credit of United Fund at the local banks which have offered to handle the money. They are Hancock Marchanic and Gulf National. No report has been received yet from the drive at Mis-sincippi Test Facility and what is expected to bolister con-siderably the county's over-all total.

This is promosed dredging plan of Hancock Port and Harbor Commission for industrial development at Mulatto Bayou. U.S. Army Corpo of Englacero has called for objections from navigational standpoint to be filled by Nov. 28 at its Wabile district office. Access channel and harbor, as illustrated, will be dredged to depth of 12 feet below mean low water with allowable overdepth to 14 feet below mean low water. About 2,272,000 cubic yards of spoil are to be deposited in disposal areas shown on drawing.

You refer to "dissident Democrato" and "turncoat Damacrass". Of course, the most breed of Republicano had to come from comewhere. From notion, but that they also have Reconstruction to the New Deal the national Democras party was the only party tolorcolo to the South. During those years Macdosippiano really 62d ant bave a choice. But as times and parties changed, more and more people realized that Ropublicans today believe that the people themselves, as private individuals and through thair independent accordations, have the power and ability are cally Œ colve the grave problems and illo which plages our great the power to cae beyond thece Illo and create for themselves now opportunities and reach unprecedented new brights. On the other hand, the Democrate have cought through through government programs and an ever calarding federal co-tablishment and have travelled for down the road to coclairom.

You hit upon a pointed obcervation - namely that Ropublicano ceek to tura out Deone office bolders who are most chocaly allied with and firmly committed to the liberal national Democras establishment. Republicano find no urgency chout municipal and county officials who are basic concervatives and are for removed from allegiance to LBJ and the federal machine. The fonces hogo are the once mearect the trough - and those are the ones of greatest concern

w Micolootypi Republicano. And the bit chout "malifical CLOUGHDE O - how formance we are that 'political manding' and "experience" and "contority" are not prerequisite for poussi rediction of in good people of Misciccippi. But the choicest thought of all was the clever way you pointed out that the Republican Party no longer represents the "ugger economic and social levelo" if indeed it ever did represent them. Certainly the senator from Sunflower County is the perconification of the ariotocratic Delta planter - the "landed gentry" in all he glory. On the other hand, no one has ascribed to Congressman Walker any status more pretentious than being a chicken farmer.

To the proude-imellectuals such words as "liberty" and 'freedom' and 'petriotiom' constitutional government" and "crates rights" are old hat. Me - I'll take the new hat - a three-cornered one red, white and blue-the worksand co. I believe. Mr. Editor. will you.

And while FCR coored his upon in 1924, he also sufficient the precise those of any Democratic precisions—70 cents in 1989. when the country was in a recession period, the United States was highly icolationia, FDR was building the riving threes of Historium and we obviously were facing engul/ment in another world war. Even during World War II FDR loss 50 seats, in Warren G. Harding, the Republican provident who defeated the Democrate in 1920 when the League of Notions was a bet isour, still took the worst obeliaciding of any provident of the pact half century two years later when the COP bott 76 cents in the House. This in coite of the fact a Republican—Calvin Coolidge-would be elected president another two years later,

Thus-if history can be used as a gauge—an off-year defeat for the party in the White House does not mean it will lose the Whate House next time the presidency is at stake. Just as the party holding the White House local cents in the off years, it may gain them back in the precidential years, at least when a precident to re-elected. The only exceptions to this in the past 50 years were the loss of three Republican House seats in Eigenhower's re-election in 1956, and John F. Kennedy's loss of 20 peats in the House in his parrow victory in 1960 over Richard Nixon.

For the poot-election analysts, here are the House cent hooses sucrained by presidents holding the White House in the other off-year elections since 1916:

Woodrow Wilcon, 28 in 1918; Harry Truman, 54 in 1946, 29 in 1950; John F. Kennedy, 5 in 1962.

Among Republicans, Coolidge lost 10 in 1926; Hoover 53 in 1930, Eicenhower 18 in 1954, 47 in 1958.

With these figures—and remainbaring how the following Precidential elections turned our-you can be as expert as almost anybody in diagnotoing the results of the 1966 Congressatomal elections next week.

Election outlook

If right-wing condidates score major triumphs in next Tuesday's election, it might mean a big change in administration policy, because the incumbent White House and party strategists always try to find a clue to the nation's political swings each time witero go to the polin, no matter how the results may be colored by local or perconality factors.

If there is a clear national owing to the right, you thus could find President Johnson more inclined to escalate the war in Viet Nam, relax his efforts to re-establish irrenditer relations with communist nations in Europe, and make changes in his domestic programs. Here to how come of the major roces shaped up:

Now York — Gov. Nolcon Rockefeller looked to be the winner until his huge $4,500,000 expenses fund was made public. This may counteract the heavy vote which FDR, jr., will roll up and the bumbling campaign of his Democratic opponent, Frank O'Connor. But FDR will draw voteo from O'Connor rather than from Rockefeller.

California-At this moment Ronald Reagan looks like the winner. Gov. Pat Brown, the incumbent Democrat, has been hurt by the white backlash against Negro riots in Los Angeles. San Francisco and other areas.

Ohio-GOP Gov. James Rhodes should win by a landslide. may carry in come Republican Congressmen, among them young Bob Taft. Taft would loce without Rhodes, may lose anyway. Georgia-Arch-segregationia Lester Maddon now seems likely to defeat Republican Congresoman Bo Callaway for the governorship. Callaway is also a sogregationist, but less of a rabble rouser than Maddox, and Callaway also will have the labor vote against him.

New Hampohire-Retired Air Force Gen. Harrison Thyng is running for the GOP on a win-the-war-quick platform. A lot of Republicans will vote against him, which probably will reelect Democratic Sen. Tom McIntyre.

New Jersey-Sen. Clifford Case, outstanding liberal Republican, is sure to win re-election. Pennsylvania-Milton Shapp, businessman who defeated the party machinery to win the Democratic nomination for governor, appears the lover, though this could change. Illinois—Elder otateoman Sen. Faul Douglas apparently will loss to Republican Charles Percy. The anti-Negro backlash has hurt Douglas periously, though he has been a life-long champlon of the minorities that have swang against him because of riots and Negro campaigns for open housing. Michigan-Six-time Cov. G. Mannen Williams, back in the more after federal duty, to try to become Democratic penator from Michigan, to still running on uphill race against his COP opponent Congresoman Robert Griffin, co-author of the LandrumSriffin Act. ### 24-hour bail service

Good nevo department: Runcell and Mylma Antercon, of Madecising, have leased the fiching comp a the sol of the soundle in Codar Point. They are probably the most continued fictor men we have ever gather with and promine 20-hour cervice.

We were only chie to great with Mra. Anderson over the phone this week but after histories to such embadam, could bandly force ourceives to been from running bones and grading our est chiamies only. The Andercoma have been operating a fiching camp in Hinterburg for come years, the One Stop, and have quite a number of friends coming down to eappy Jordan River fichling. Inform to be come of the bect in the area. They have been having live bait but rea out last weekend and weren't able to replacifal the supply because of and weather when the shrimp beed for warmer spots. However, they chould have more thin weekend.

Mrs. Andercon wrose on interesting article for us which we will quote in part - space is short, you brow.

Anytow, the pays "The species, white trous, etc., are running in the mouth of the Jordan while green trout are still biting up-aream. Along with the regulars, catches of absepbeed and drum are being made. The redo are a little abov coming in but I have seen some nice carings of rot reds and a few bulls.

The trolling season has started in earnest so all you fishermen get your gear in chape for these last pretty weeks of fishing. Don't forget to wash your gear in fresh water after the trip and use a little oil." (Real good advice)

The Andersons have some big plans for their Cedar Point cpot and we'll go into them more fully next week.

Soft shells digging in h's time for soft shell crobs but the Bay's opening champ, Henry Long, says they just ain't here. Maybe they just don't like the dredging and other improvements going on in the Bay. Well, you've got to cacrifice something for progress.

Football time - how's about those Ole Miss Rebs clobbering LSU 17-0. We had 'em along with two other winners in our prediction column and managed to nick the boso for a little wager to cover our United Fund obligation.

The Johnny Rebs get a rest this Saturday before traveling to Tennessee Nov. 12 and we're sure Father Cunningham will be burned to know we're picking He Miss unless comething happens.

Buskeibuii sei io bounce

The high school basketball season is just about on us and we tremble at the thought of past experience trying to cope with a half dozen or more schools, with both boys and girls teams. junior varoities, B-teams; etc., each playing umpteen games a week. Pheeeeeeuul

Hazardous fire conditions

Guy W. Davio, of the Mississippi Forestry Commission, colled us to remind equirrel and rabbit humers to use great care with fire in the woods these days at the danger of forest and brush fires mounts with each dry day that passes.

Although fire danger usually doesn't become acute until after ceveral froms, dry weather and an early needle and leaf fall has already greatly increased to hazard, Davis said. He pointed out that fire in the woods not only destroys valuable timber but ruins wildlife habitat. In case of woods fire call

Mrs. Monroe Curvas of 117 State St., told us her con Vincent, a crudent of Ole Mios, was home for the westend and attended the Ole Mios - LSU game Saturday at Boton Rouge. All we can cay to come people have all the luck.
